PRESS RELEASE | HONG KONG | 30 MAY 2018 | FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Christie's Hong Kong 2018 Spring Sale Totals

HK$3.11bn/US$399m

Highest Ever Evening Sale Total

Global Participation and Strong Appetite for Masterpieces

3 Top Lots across art and luxury categories each achieved over HK$100m

Hong Kong, 30 May 2018- Christie's Hong Kong Spring Sales realised HK$3.11bn / US$399m from 18 sales across 6 days.

Rebecca Wei, Christie's President Asia said "The strong results bear testament to the depth of our global client base, with three works across art and luxury categories having each achieving in excess of HK$100m. As collectors pursued masterpieces across all categories, notable auction results were achieved, propelling iconic Asian masters such as Zao Wou-Ki to new heights of international recognition. The market also responded enthusiastically to our innovative curation which saw the highest ever evening sale total in our history as we surpassed HK$1bn in sales and introduced our most ambitious offering of Western art to date."
