Sabine Kegel, Head of Sale, commented: "Following the Patek Philippe 175 sale which fetched nearly SFr.20M, the Watch team is very pleased to have realised a grand total of SFr.34M in 24 hours. In a broad, healthy and ever growing market, where buyers demand expertise and scholarship, we offered once again the finest selection of watches and wristwatches. Today's auction was led by the Reference 5016/1 by Patek Philippe, another famous model of the 175 years old manufacturer which fetched SFr.713,000. Throughout the day, over 600 watch connoisseurs registered to become the new owners of one of these exceptional watches. The team was especially proud of the result achieved for the Breguet No. 1135 which sold for SFr.605,000, three times its presale estimate to The Breguet Museum. Today's results show the depth and the strength of the watch market demonstrating great consistency at all levels in terms of watches, prices and clients."
