Hong Kong – On 29 May, Christie's Important Watches live auction will present 257 lots of unique, complicated and vintage timepieces across all price points and spanning 19th to 21st centuries, with a total estimate in excess of HK$88 million.

This season's auction is led by a Patek Philippe Ref. 5002P, a platinum double-dial wristwatch with twelve complications comprising minute repeater, tourbillon, perpetual calendar, retrograde date, sky chart, moon phases, orbit display and sidereal time, circa 2012 (estimate: HK$8,000,000 – 10,000,000/ US$1,110,000 – 1,300,000, illustrated left). Consigned by an important private collector, the present watch is fresh to the auction market. Furthermore, to the best of our knowledge, this is the first time a platinum Sky Moon Tourbillon is being offered to the auction market, in factory double sealed condition, as the original owner would have received the watch from the boutique.

The sale also encompasses some of the most sought-after and rarest timepieces in unrivalled condition and variety for both gentlemen and ladies, from modern complications to historically significant lots, by esteemed manufacturers and independent watchmakers, including Patek Philippe, Rolex, Vacheron Constantin, Audemars Piguet, Piaget, Cartier, Harry Winston, Richard Mille, MB&F and many more.

At the same time, to cater for the growing demand of online-only auctions, from 23 May to 6 June, a broad assortment of classic and modern timepieces will also be offered on Christies.com for watch lovers to acquire their favorite watches by just a few clicks.

Mary Lee, Senior Vice President, Head of Watches, Asia, Christie's, commented, "This season we continue with our hunt for diverse and exceptional horological treasures across all price levels, including pieces that will mesmerize both avid collectors as well as new buyers. With such an incredible selection of modern and vintage highlights, carefully chosen by our specialists, we expect spirited bidding in both our live auction and online-only sale from global watch enthusiasts and connoisseurs."

ONLINE-ONLY SALE [23 May – 6 June]

A Spring Festival of Time

Celebrating the arrival of Spring and Summer, the Hong Kong online-only sale is abloom with a fresh offering of 130 timepieces to rejuvenate the senses of both ladies and gentlemen. The wide-ranging selection covers pocket and wristwatches, complications and time-only timepieces in both sportive and classical styles together with bejeweled wristwatches, spanning the 19th to 21st centuries and across all price levels. While pocket watches, vintage Rolexes, Patek Philippe wristwatches and modern complications will appeal to the more cerebral collectors, others will be delighted by the visually dazzling diamond-set examples. Like spring flowers, the watches come in different shades of metal ranging from white to pink and in a myriad of shapes including that of a bursting sunray heralding the nascent spring light and colours.
