Chris Munro, Head of London Wine Department, commented: "Burgundy took centre stage in this wine auction. The Superb Collection of Mature Burgundy from Iconic Domaines drew bidders from around the globe to compete for highly sought after full cases of rarities from Domaines Comte de Georges de Vogüé and Rousseau. Highlights included a full case of Gevrey-Chambertin Clos Saint Jacques 1962 from Rousseau which smashed through its pre-sale estimate of £7,000-9,000 making a remarkable £25,850. We also witnessed intense competition for a dozen bottles of Musigny Vieilles Vignes de Vogüé 1964 which made an impressive £25,850. Elsewhere wines from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti took the top three places with a case of Romanée-Conti 1988 making £94,000. We look forward to our next wine sale in London on the 23 October."
