Louise Phelps, Head of Sale commented: "We are pleased with the strong sale results which reflect the quality and breadth of The John Shearer Collection. This carefully curated collection was unusual in its combination of the Meissen, Vincennes and Sèvres worlds. Competition was fierce with international interest from collectors keen to acquire exceptional pieces. The Shearer Collection was known only to a handful of people in the porcelain world, but following the success of this auction it will take its place among the legendary sales of European porcelain."
